MEMBERSHIP REPORT (Janice Konstantinidis):

We gained three new members this month.

Some of our members have changed their email addresses without notifying me. I am wondering what's the best way to contact these members. Some have postal addresses and or phone numbers. I was thinking I'd contact them this way.

Dennis has mentioned previously that members don't like phone calls. Maybe this could be an exception as they are missing out on email blasts. I'll be advised by the board about the best way to rectify this matter.
